Fort Gibraltar comes to life with the excitement of the fur trade era! Experience the "Joie de Vivre" of the voyageur spirit as you encounter the colorful characters of the Red River settlement. Visitors will be greeted by costumed interpreters telling stories, singing songs, and a host of other activities recounting the historic days of the Fort.

Your visit to the Fort begins with the man in charge: M. Le Bourgeois. He will explain the importance of Fort Gibraltar as a North West Company fur trading post and its role in the development of Winnipeg. He will also introduce you to the life of a voyageur stationed at Fort Gibraltar. As a special guest of the big boss you will be treated, at every cabin, to the finest refreshments the Northwest has to offer!

Your group will then be divided into five smaller groups and a costumed guide will hand out a present from the Bourgeois. Each group represents a brigade of new voyageurs. This tour will be an initiation to the voyageur way of life. Enjoy the tall tales and folklore of the 19th century working man!

Le Grand Rendez-Vous!

When voyageurs would finish a long journey they would gather together and celebrate their ongoing friendship; this was called a Rendez-Vous. So gather with your new friends and benefit from live music in the comfort of La Maison du Bourgeois. A splendid mansion built for one of the most important men in the Northwest. Dance the night away and enjoy your evening as a true "Homme du Nord"!

Cheers!
